Mr Yadav Ashishkumar Ramjeet

Name of Event: Tree plantation
Venue: Jilha Parishad School, Govathane

No of Participants: 44
Date of Event: 21nd June, 2021

Introduction:
The NSS unit of Indira Gandhi College undertook a tree plantation drive at Govathane village, Uran during the academic year 2021-22 amidst the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic. The objective of this initiative was to contribute towards environmental conservation and raise awareness about the importance of afforestation.

Objective:
The primary objective of the tree plantation drive was to contribute to the ecological balance and enhance the green cover in Govathane village. Additionally, it sought to raise awareness about the importance of trees in mitigating environmental issues and sustaining a healthy ecosystem.

Participants:
The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, and local community members of Govathane village. Strict adherence to COVID-19 safety protocols, including mask-wearing, social distancing, and regular sanitization, was maintained throughout the event.

Activities:
Preparation and Planning:
A reconnaissance trip was conducted to select suitable sites for plantation. Saplings of indigenous species were procured from local nurseries to ensure adaptability to the region's ecosystem.

Awareness and Education:
Informational sessions were conducted to educate participants about the types of trees planted, their ecological benefits, and long-term environmental impact. Importance of regular maintenance, watering, and protection of newly planted saplings was emphasized.

Plantation Drive:

The plantation drive involved digging pits, planting saplings, and providing necessary care instructions.

Documentation and Evaluation:

A detailed record was maintained, documenting the number and types of saplings planted. The survival rate and growth progress of the planted saplings were regularly monitored and evaluated.

Achievements:

A total of 53 saplings were successfully planted during the event. Total number of volunteers participated was 24 out of that 15 were male and 9 female.

Types of saplings planted:

- Neem (Azadirachta indica)
- Mango (Mangifera indica)
- Banyan Ficus benghalensis)
- Peepal (Ficus religiosa)
- Apata

and some of the local species of saplings.

Impact:

Improved green cover and enhanced biodiversity in Aware village. Increased environmental awareness among community members. Strengthened community participation in environmental conservation activities.

Conclusion:

The tree plantation drive organized by the NSS unit of Indira Gandhi College at Govathane village, Uran, stands as a testament to the collective efforts in combating environmental challenges, even in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. The event not only contributed to the local ecosystem but also fostered a sense of community and environmental consciousness among the participants. Ongoing efforts will be made to ensure the sustained growth and vitality of the newly planted trees.

Blood Donation Process:

Trained medical professionals from Samarpan Blood Bank administered the blood donation process, ensuring a safe and hygienic environment.

Refreshments and Rest Area:

Donors were provided with refreshments and had access to a rest area post-donation to ensure their well-being.

Volunteer Engagement:

NSS volunteers played a crucial role in coordinating various activities, assisting donors, and ensuring a smooth flow throughout the event.

Community Participation:

The event successfully engaged not only NSS volunteers but also members of the local community, creating a sense of unity and social responsibility.

Achievements:

Total Number of Donors: 78

Community Awareness and Engagement:

The event helped raise awareness about the importance of blood donation and fostered a sense of community involvement.

Acknowledgements:

The success of this blood donation event would not have been possible without the dedicated efforts of NSS volunteers, medical professionals, and the generous donors. We extend our gratitude to Samarpan Blood Bank for their support.

Conclusion:

The blood donation event organized under the National Service Scheme was a resounding success, exemplifying the power of community engagement in contributing towards a noble cause. The event not only collected a significant number of units of blood but also raised awareness about the critical need for regular blood donations. We look forward to organizing more such events in the future, aiming to save even more lives and strengthen the sense of community responsibility.

Introduction:

The Corona Awareness Campaign conducted by the NSS unit of Indira Gandhi College during the academic year 2021-2022 aimed to educate, raise awareness, and assist communities in combating the COVID-19 pandemic. Through a series of well-organized activities, the campaign effectively reached out to a diverse audience, imparting essential knowledge about preventive measures, hygiene practices, and mental health support.

Objectives:

Disseminate accurate information about COVID-19.

Promote adherence to government guidelines and safety protocols.

Provide essential supplies and support to vulnerable communities.

Address mental health challenges arising from the pandemic.

Campaign Activities:

Webinars and Workshops:

Conducted a series of webinars led by medical professionals and experts, covering topics such as COVID-19 transmission, prevention, and vaccination.

Organized workshops on mask-making and sanitization techniques, ensuring the availability of protective equipment within communities.

Awareness Drives:

Distributed pamphlets, posters, and infographics emphasizing the importance of social distancing, hand hygiene, and mask usage.

Conducted door-to-door campaigns to reach households in underserved areas, providing information in local languages.

Mr Yadav Ashishkumar Ramjeet

Name of Event: Road safety Awareness

Venue: Indira Gandhi College of Arts & Commerce, Vikhroli(w)

No of Participants: 13

Date of Event: August 28, 2021

Introduction:

The Road Safety Campaign organized by the NSS (National Service Scheme) unit of Indira Gandhi College during the academic year 2021-22 aimed to create awareness about road safety measures and promote responsible behavior among the community.

Objectives:

To educate the community about road safety rules and regulations.
To sensitize individuals about the consequences of reckless driving and violations.
To advocate for a safer and more responsible road culture.

Activities and Initiatives:

Awareness Workshops and Seminars:

The NSS unit organized a series of workshops and seminars on road safety. Experts from the field were invited to address students and community members. Topics covered included traffic rules, first aid in accidents, and the importance of defensive driving.

Street Plays and Skits:

NSS volunteers conducted street plays and skits in nearby residential areas, markets, and educational institutions. These performances were aimed at conveying road safety messages in an engaging and memorable manner.

Distribution of Pamphlets and Posters:

Informative pamphlets and posters were designed and distributed to local residents, providing them with crucial information on road safety tips, emergency contacts, and legal provisions.

Mock Drills and Demonstrations:

Mock drills simulating accident scenarios were conducted to demonstrate the correct steps to be taken in such situations. This practical exercise helped participants understand the importance of quick and appropriate responses.

Traffic Signage Awareness Campaign:

NSS volunteers actively participated in painting and installing road signs around the college campus and in neighboring areas. This initiative aimed to reinforce the significance of adhering to traffic signs.

Road Safety Awareness Rally:

A grand road safety awareness rally was organized, involving NSS volunteers, students, and local residents. The rally covered major streets in the vicinity, spreading the message of responsible road behavior.

Impact and Achievements:

Increased Awareness: The campaign succeeded in reaching a wide audience, including students, faculty, local residents, and commuters. The community displayed a heightened awareness of road safety measures and compliance with traffic rules.

Behavior Change:

A noticeable shift in behavior was observed, with an increased number of individuals adopting safer road practices. Instances of reckless driving and traffic violations reduced significantly.

Conclusion:

The Road Safety Campaign organized by the NSS unit Indira Gandhi College during the academic year 2021-22 proved to be a resounding success. By employing a multi-faceted approach, the campaign effectively raised awareness about road safety and influenced positive behavior change within the community. The efforts of the NSS unit and the enthusiastic participation of volunteers and community members contributed significantly to the campaign's success.

Date of Event:

31st Oct, 2021

Introduction:

The NSS (National Service Scheme) unit of Indira Gandhi College organized a COVID-19 vaccination camp during the academic year 2022-23, in adherence to the national mission of achieving widespread vaccination against the COVID-19 virus. This initiative aimed to contribute to the collective effort in controlling the pandemic and ensuring the safety of the community.

Objective:

The primary objective of the camp was to facilitate the vaccination process for students, faculty members, support staff, and the local community, ensuring easy access and timely administration of COVID-19 vaccines.

Activities Undertaken:

Planning and Coordination:

The NSS unit formed a dedicated team responsible for the planning, coordination, and execution of the vaccination camp.

Liaison was established with local health authorities and vaccination centers to ensure a seamless process.

Pre-Camp Awareness Drive:

Prior to the camp, a comprehensive awareness drive was conducted to educate the target population about the importance and benefits of COVID-19 vaccination.

Information regarding the vaccine, eligibility criteria, and registration process was disseminated through various channels including social media, posters, and word-of-mouth.

Camp Setup and Infrastructure:

A designated area within the college premises was prepared for the vaccination camp, ensuring proper spacing, sanitation, and crowd management.

All necessary medical equipment, PPE kits, and safety measures were arranged to comply with COVID-19 protocols.

Registration and Verification:

Volunteers assisted participants with the registration process, ensuring they met the eligibility criteria for vaccination.

Government-issued IDs and proof of eligibility were verified before administering the vaccine.

Medical Team and Vaccination Process:

A team of trained healthcare professionals administered the vaccines, ensuring adherence to dosage schedules and safety precautions.

Observations were conducted post-vaccination to monitor any immediate adverse reactions.

Documentation and Reporting:

Detailed records of individuals vaccinated, vaccine type, and dosage administered were meticulously maintained.

A final report was compiled to document the overall success of the camp.

Achievements:

Vaccine Utilization Rate:

Adverse Reactions: No serious adverse reactions reported, minor side effects managed promptly.

Community Impact:

The camp received positive feedback from participants, contributing significantly to the vaccination drive in the local area.

Conclusion:

The COVID-19 vaccination camp organized by the NSS unit of Indira Gandhi College during the academic year 2022-23 was a significant success in contributing to the national vaccination drive. The efforts of the dedicated team and the positive response from the community have set a commendable example for future initiatives.

Date of Event:

19th Nov, 2021

Introduction:

The NSS unit of Indira Gandhi College Vikhroli, in collaboration with the Health Officer of N ward, BMC, undertook an ambitious COVID-19 Vaccination Program for individuals aged 25 and above during the academic year 2020-21. This program aimed to contribute to the nationwide efforts to combat the pandemic by achieving mass vaccination and thereby, herd immunity. This report provides a comprehensive overview of the program's planning, execution, and outcomes.

The COVID-19 pandemic has been a significant global health crisis, necessitating swift and collective action. Vaccination has emerged as a cornerstone of public health response. Recognizing this, the NSS unit of Indira Gandhi College Vikhroli took the initiative to organize a vaccination drive targeting the age group of 25 and above.

Objectives

To administer COVID-19 vaccines to individuals aged 25 and above.

To disseminate accurate information regarding the vaccination process, benefits, and safety measures.

To ensure equitable access to vaccines for all eligible individuals.

Planning and Preparation

Collaboration with BMC

The NSS unit collaborated with the Health Officer of N ward, BMC, to coordinate logistics, vaccine procurement, and healthcare personnel deployment. This partnership ensured seamless execution of the program.

Venue Selection

A spacious and easily accessible venue within the college premises was identified to facilitate the vaccination process. It complied with all safety protocols and allowed for the establishment of registration, screening, vaccination, and observation zones.

Resource Allocation

A dedicated team of NSS volunteers was mobilized for various tasks such as registration assistance, crowd management, and post-vaccination monitoring. Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) kits, sanitizers, and other necessary supplies were procured in compliance with safety guidelines.

Execution

Registration and Screening

Upon arrival, individuals were registered using an online portal developed by the NSS unit, capturing essential details like name, age, contact information, and medical history. Subsequently, they underwent a thorough screening process conducted by trained healthcare personnel.

Vaccination Process

Qualified healthcare professionals administered the vaccines following the prescribed protocol. The entire process was carried out in an organized and sterile environment to ensure maximum safety.

Post-Vaccination Observation

A designated observation area was set up where individuals were monitored for any immediate adverse effects post-vaccination. NSS volunteers provided support and ensured timely medical intervention if required.

Achievements and Outcomes

Vaccination Coverage

A total of 187 individuals aged 25 and above were successfully vaccinated during the program.
